 Two Special Events on Saturday Evening, October 12th:

(Both at the Historic 100 Year Old San Luis Obispo Masonic Lodge)

➔ VIP meet and greet Reception with David Holt and Robert Van Camp at 6:30 followed by a program from Robert entitled "Celebrating North Americas Tourist Railways and Museums" which is a tribute to the men and women that help preserve and present our railroad heritage and keep it alive today for all to enjoy. Limited to 100 VIP Guests who can also attend David's concert which follows as part of their reception ticket.

➔ "Train Songs, Hobo Secrets and Tales of the Rails" - This 8:00pm concert will feature a wide variety of Appalachian and railroad music and stories from David Holt. For over forty years, David has been collecting and performing the songs and stories of the Blue Ridge Mountains. He has learned this treasure trove of music directly from musical greats like Roy Acuff, Grandpa Jones, Tommy Jarrell, Etta Baker and toured the country with the legendary Doc Watson for 15 years. Special Guests are now being lined up to open the show.

The Central Coast Railroad Festival is a broad based festival which focuses on railroading of many types throughout the beautiful Central Coast of California. Included in the Festival are excursions, model layout tours, historic buildings, railroad equipment displays, concerts, films and special family programs. This 5th Annual Festival in 2013 will highlight the Grand Opening of the San Luis Obispo Railroad Museum.
